

I would like to say that what the road the FCC is embarking on with attempting to adopt rules at its Monday meeting, that reduces rather than promotes "diversity of ownership" and "competition", as required by the Telecommunications Act of 1996 is a horrific one.

I hope that this legislation will NOT be passed. And if so, I would be one of the concerned citizens to fight until it is overturned.

Thank you,

Jon Robinson